The ancient language, which refused to disclose itself to the former Governors of India, unlocks its treasures at your command, and enriches the world with the history, learning and science of a distant age. The rising importance of our collegiate institution has never been more clearly demonstrated than on the present occasion; and thousands of the learned in distant nations will exult in this triumph of literature. What a singular exhibition has been this day presented to us! In presence of the supreme Gover-The Venerable Mr. Carey, for many years the Baptist Missionary in the north of India, following the steps of Schwartz in the south--in Oriental and classical learning his superior, and not inferior in laborious study and Christian zeal. Carey was the author of a Grammar of the Shanscrit Language, 900 4to pages; of a Grammar...
