Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Over two centuries ago Dr.Samuel Johnson made a remarkable statement about politics. That was, politics is the last refuge of a scoundrel. At that time the description was adequate to explain the main characteristics of a politician. Now times have changed and civilization has advanced. In some cases it has changed to such an extent of becoming a disease which has affected politicians also. So a new breed of politicians has emerged. This breed is driven by the greed of power at any cost. This is seen in great magnitude with increasing variety in some democracies. They specialize in creating problems which erupt like volcanoes causing widespread damage, to life, property and administration apart from colossal wastage of time, effort and money. Democracy is government of the people by the people, for the people. It is a venerable, noble and desirable institution and form of government, one of the greatest and finest institutions of mankind. Many countries have achieved amazing progress and overcome challenges under political leaders of high degree of statesmanship in the government. Its...
