Excerpt: .is known as the gunboat type of marine boiler, and the buildings are heated from the same plant. The cleaning machinery is of the latest design, and it is in this building that the oats are prepared for the final milling in the cereal mill. The company has shown steady growth since its organization, the milling plant alone giving employment to over one hundred men. The president of the company is Mr. L. E. Harmon, and the secretary and treasurer is Mr. G. F. Booth. in 1895, and now ranks among the city s leading industries. Its strides have been well-nigh phenomenal. This city is now the headquarters of the concern, from which all its extensive advertising and sample business is also carried on. The largest of its several local mills are on Fulton Street, extending through the block to Perry Street and accessible...
