The Updraft

By Brett Peto

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 106 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.2in. What would you do if a tornado struck Sixteen-year-old Benjamin Destins small farm town was already failing. Twelve years ago, its Plymouth plant shut its doors, and since then, his community has skidded ever closer to financial and social ruin. Then, on a normal summer day, Ben and his father, Stanley, are in the next town over loading fertilizer into their trucks when a storm blows in and unleashes a tornadoan updraftonto the plains. Quickly separated from his father, Ben must try to rescue his neighbors, save his already suffering town, and somehow achieve redemption out of the destruction of the updraft. Hailed for the intellectual wording, the excellent description of the aftermath of this most violent storm, and the emotion-inducing situations that evoke reflection on community, family, friends, and faith (Live to Read), Peto offers a compelling case that small-town America is not dead yet. This is a 22, 000-word novella. Two additional, never-before-published short stories from Brett Peto, Barefoot Black and Pebble Creek, come after the main story. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
