We have seen several cutters on our streets the past few days, which are very unusual sights at this place. The following have visited at the mine since our last writing: L. H. Friend and assistant, E. E. McClintock, superintendent of telegraph, and Mr. Bruce. The Card Club was entertained Saturday evening by Miss Hammersley and Miss Jameson at the home of the latter. The house was beautifully decorated with hearts in honor of St. Valentine, and each guest was presented with a hand-painted Valentine upon entering the room. One of the pleasing features of the evening was the archery contest. Hearts seemed to predominate and all went home feeling well repaid for being present. Mrs. Sarah Snyder, who has been very sick for the past month. Is Improving very rapidly at this writing and will soon be able to be around. IOTA. William H. James, who was prominently identified with the mining and manufacturing interests of Colorado for over forty years, and who was a director of The Colorado Fuel and Iron Company from the organization of the Company, October 21, 1892, until December. 1902, died at his home, 1576 Sherman Avenue, Denver, at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, January 28, 1903, after a six months illness. Funeral services, held at the late home of the deceased, were in charge of Dean H. Martyn Hart. Nearly all of the most prominent citizens of Denver were present. The floral offerings were exceptionally beautiful. The pallbearers were Joseph...
