

The Flower Daughter

By K R Lobel

Shoot Your Eye Out Publishing, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Based on an ancient Celtic myth, The Flower Daughter is the story of an independent spirit through seven incarnations. In the time of the second building of Stonehenge, Ani and her father, Nechton, are the ultimate examples of the power struggles between a failing matriarchy and a rising patriarchy. When Ani is first challenged to offer her father a peaceful resolution to their conflict, she unequivocally refuses. But their violent deaths throw her into millennia of life experiences. From the African warrior to the old woman in the Caucasus Mountains; the child in thirteenth century Genoa to the eighteenth century monk; and finally to nineteenth century Kansas, Ani must forge a growing awareness of what forgiveness might look like and how it may be reached. Each life is historically accurate and reflects the slow swing back towards equality and freedom between genders. A fascinating chronicle of human struggle, hardship, and triumph, with an emphasis on women's subordination throughout history. Jasmine Haynes, author of the Max Starr paranormal mystery series, Dead to the...
